

THREE ACTIVISTS WORKING TO DEFEND THE PLANET

A free program sponsored by Progressive Democrats of America – San Francisco

WHAT: Why we MUST march on Sept. 8th—and beyond: Three perspectives for REAL action on our climate crisis

WHEN: August 23, 2018, 7:00 – 9:00 PM

WHERE: San Francisco Unitarian-Universalist Center, Chapel
1187 Franklin (at Geary), San Francisco

WHY: In 2015 the world came together in Paris, and progress has been made since. But with the US withdrawal from that summit's agreement, what can WE do, in our daily lives, to help stop global warming? This forum will feature three activists representing different, but allied fields, all deeply concerned that we are not doing nearly enough. Please join us to explore possible steps for action and ways to start building hope for future generations.

CONTACT:

SPEAKERS:

JAN KIRSCH is a doctor specializing in internal medicine, medical oncology and hematology. She is a speaker on nuclear war and environmental issues with Physicians for Social Responsibility, and has served as its New York City chapter president. She is also the coordinator of the 350 Bay Area Speakers' Bureau and San Francisco Bay Area chapter leader for The Climate Mobilization.

PENNIE OPAL PLANT is a co-founder of Idle No More SF Bay and a signatory to the Indigenous Women of the Americas Defending Mother Earth Treaty. Her mother is Yaqui and Mexican, her father Choctaw, Cherokee and European. She has worked for over 35 years to ensure that the sacred system of life continues in a safe, sustainable and healthy manner.

KATHY SETIAN, an Environmental Engineer and retired EPA Superfund Project Manager, is also a delegate to the San Francisco Labor Council for IFPTE 20, Engineers and Scientists of California. She is reaching out to working people to develop their awareness of how climate change affects them and helping to build the labor contingent for the September 8 March for Climate, Jobs and Justice.